

Dentatek Corporation
Laguna Hills, California

Position I: Quality Manager

Responsibilities

Responsible for developing and maintaining quality system for medical device Company in Laguna Hills, California. A candidate with regulatory experience is preferred.

Requirements

The candidate should have experience developing and maintaining quality systems compliant with ISO 13485 as well as managing quality system audits and ISO certifications. It is preferred that the candidate has a technical background and is able to interact with the product development team to draft and maintain system specifications and procedures. A background in 510k regulatory submissions is desirable. The candidate should be creative and enjoy working with a small multi-disciplinary team.

Other Information

Dentatek Corporation has a novel technology to clean root canals that promises to revolutionize endodontic therapy.

To Apply

Contact Kristen Apgar at Fjord Ventures at kapgar@fjordventures.com

Position II: Director Regulatory Affairs and Quality Assurance

Responsibilities

Responsible for regulatory affairs and quality assurance for medical device Company in Laguna Hills, California.

Requirements

The candidate should have experience developing and maintaining quality systems compliant with ISO 13485 as well as managing quality system audits and ISO certifications. The candidate should have experience with writing and submitting 510k submissions. The candidate should be creative and enjoy working with a small multi-disciplinary team.

Other Information

Dentatek Corporation has a novel technology to clean root canals that promises to revolutionize endodontic therapy.

To Apply

Contact Kristen Apgar at Fjord Ventures at kapgar@fjordventures.com